Exigis Announces Hire of Operations Director

Exigis announced today that it has hired Robert Rodriguez to oversee company operations including fulfillment, solutions and customer service functions.

New York, NY, May 23, 2016 - Exigis, LLC., the leading provider of enterprise software and services for risk management, insurance automation, and trade finance, announced today that it has hired Robert Rodriguez as Director, Operations. Mr. Rodriguez will manage company-wide operations and oversee fulfillment, solutions and customer service functions.

"We're ecstatic to welcome Robert to the Exigis management team," says Armand Alvarez, President and CEO, Exigis. "His experience, industry knowledge, and proven track record will be invaluable in developing and refining Exigis solutions and services and enhancing the customer experience and value."

Mr. Rodriguez joined Exigis from Registry Monitoring Insurance Services ('RMIS') where he served as Vice President of Operations. Prior to RMIS, Mr. Rodriguez spent nine years with Insurance Data Services ('IDS') as Director of Information Technology where he successfully led a team in the development and commercial introduction of one of the industry's first certificate of insurance tracking software applications. Following the 2007 acquisition of IDS by Ebix, Inc., Mr. Rodriguez was promoted to Vice President, Operations in charge of managing the combined operations of the Ebix BPO [RCS] division. During Mr. Rodriguez's eight-year tenure with Ebix he provided strategic leadership and tactical management of resources within all areas of operations including technology, applications development, client services, call centers and client relations.
